Excerpt: . . . inimical to the interest of the insuring public and the fire insurance companies. I would suggest to you that between now and January 1 a special effort be made to present the facts in regard to fire insurance to the members of the Legislature in order that they may be able to vote intelligently on the insurance bills that come before them. The field men can do a great deal of missionary work in this matter. which is so vital to the interest of all of us and I bespeak your active cooperation and support in getting the facts before the members of the Legislature. Happiness, says Dr. Kendrick C. Babcock, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, University of Illinois, is the consciousness that all our powers are working for good. MICHIGAN NEWS ITEMS The Auto Title Law State officials believe that the Condon Act, which requires automobile owners, on and after Oct. 1st, to have certificates of title will, when it becomes fairly operative, make auto stealing in Michigan a lost art. Every car will be registered with the state and with county and city officials. Its full pedigree will be public property and every transaction in which it has been a part will be fully recorded. Applications for certificates of title are coming into the Secretary of States office at the rate of between 500 and 600 a day. It is stated, however, that applications must be made at the rate...
