It was the longest military conflict, which on top of everything ended in defeat for the Americans. This war had an enormous impact on various spheres both in private and public life. Above all, it drastically shaped the relationship between politics and public opinion and raised questions on the role the media played during the military conflict. The Vietnam War and its perception were unprecedented in their entire dimension. In general this was due to the climate of social and political change taking place during the 1960 s and, more specifically, because of a totally new institution being embedded in this situation television. During this decade television expanded and became the most important source of information for the people. This medium offered totally new perspectives and...
