

Old, Gay Fabulous, a Memoir

By Ken Sofronski

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He s unabashedly frank. He s unrepentantly funny. In short, he s just the sort of person you hope you run into at the next cocktail party. Irreverent raconteur Ken Sofronski weaves wisecracks and wisdom in Old, Gay Fabulous, his true account of one life lived defiantly out loud. As the old saying goes, there are eight million stories in New York. This one just happens to be worth hearing. With equal parts charm, cheek, and candor, this absolutely fabulous memoir looks back on his singular life, from high glitz to low times, and back to fabulous again. It s a story of survival, pluck, and a good dose of mischief that at once tears at the heart, lifts the spirits, and always entertains. His story begins with his earliest memory holding onto his mother s leg, and from there takes off on a wild and wooly ride through an uncommon Pennsylvania childhood with a lesbian mom and her girlfriend Vi, futile and fateful attempts at sports with the boys, as well as teenage homoerotic dalliances mixed with...
