DOCTRINES OF GAUTAMA BUDDHA. It is not possible that we should within the limits of a single chapter give our readers anything like a complete summary of the doctrines of a religion which now forms the subject of so much elaborate and learned inquiry by so many distinguished and able scholars. Our attempt will rather be to give here the substance of that lesson and those ideas which Gautama preached and inculcated to his countrymen. Buddhism is, in its essence, a system of self-culture and self-restraint. Doctrines and beliefs are of secondary importance in this system; the effort to end human suffering by . living a holy life, free from passions and desires, is the cardinal idea with which Gautama was impressed on the day on which he was enlightened under the Bo-tree in Buddha GayS, and it was - the central...
