O. , Supt. of Docs. , Congressional Sales Office, 1998. LC Number: KF27 . W344 1997f OCLC Number: ocm40410598 Subject: Medical care -- Law and legislation -- United States -- Criminal provisions. Excerpt: . . . 12 I must also point out that this doctor, this fugitive of justice, was Ambassador to the United Nations from the Dominican Republic from 1989 - 1991 and that, despite his crimes, he is a free man and a prominent diplomat. According to the Inspector General, the Administration knows the exact address where he is practicing medicine today in Santa Domingo. And according to the State Department, the United States Embassy in the Dominican Republic, and the Department of Justice's Office of International Affairs, no formal extradition request was ever made to return this fugitive to justice in the United States. The Administration's lack of commitment in this case is particularly striking, given that Article II of a bilateral treaty between the United States and the Dominican Republic calls for extradition in cases of fraud and that just two months ago, the Dominican Republic agreed to extradite two Dominican nationals involved in drug trafficking at the request of the President of the United States. Today, I am sending a letter to Attorney General Reno asking her to initiate a formal extradition process to return Rafael Gonzalez to the United States to serve his sentence for bilking the Medicare program and United States taxpayers of over 3 million dollars. Let me point out that the events shown on this undercover tape are not unusual. The Inspector General says that over 50 other cases involving...
