Southport.--At the last meeting of the Southport Town Council it was decided to remove the fountain from the municipal gardens and erect a band-stand in its place. The Lord-street Gardens Committee have decided, however, that this feature of Southport, the removal of which has raised quite a storm of criticism, should not be demolished. The fountain will be placed in Old Bank-square, opposite Bank House, near London-square.- The town council are about to erect a water-chute for visitors, and it is hoped to realise about 1,000 a year on the project. Sunderland.--The Electricity and Lighting Committee of the Sunderland Corporation have decided to oppose the Cleveland and Durham County Electric Power Bill. Swansea.--The General Purposes Committee of this corporation have accepted the tender of Mr. J. Williams for the erection of a new central...
