W. Parmelee, President, occupied the chair, and there were present: Messrs. C. Tessier, Col. Neilson, Dr. Harper, S. Lesage, E. T. D. Chambers, F. Lampson, W. Clint, D. H. Geggie, J. T. Ross, Col. After routine proceedings the President read the report of the Council for the past year as follows: Annual Report For 1908 The Council of the Literary and Historical Society has to report a year of unusual success in several directions. The outstanding feature of the year has been the culmination of a long and uninterrupted series of benefactions from Dr. J. Douglas, the Honorary President of the Society. As you all know, he has for some years given, apart from minor contributions, the sum of $500 annually to be expended in the purchase of books and in the publication of Historical Documents. On his last visit to the Society as lecturer last winter, he suggested a commutation of his annual contribution which he undoubtedly all along intended to be a permanent annual gift.
