Tell me all that happened here. Apparently there was nothing to fear. Harry put up his revolver and told what had occurred. I can t blame you and the old man, said Charley, except that I think on your own account you ought to have kept a sharper watch out. I think so, too. We have certainly been to blame. What are you going to do? Tell the police? Eeport a murder, set all Chinatown talking, or what? I don t want to do that. My idea is that Old King Brady is not dead. I had rather not drag the police into this if it can be helped. And I am very sure he is not dead. I have good reasons for thinking so. As for this corpse, the Hip Sing Tong will take care of that if...
