Congressional Sales Office, 2003. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51565760 Subject: Hazardous waste site remediation -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . 12 mentation of needed changes will be addressed via a number of special project teams. Some examples of the projects include: Implementing performance-based contracting; Addressing obstacles and reducing risks from spent nuclear fuel, high level waste, and nuclear materials, faster; Focusing program resources on cleanup by eliminating activities that do not contribute to getting on with a risk-based cleanup; and Structuring an integrated, accelerated cleanup program for small sites and projects. We have offered Federal staff from the field and headquarters the opportunity to develop proposals and apply to be project managers for these projects. We have re-ceived more than 100 proposals. A senior level EM manager will serve as an advisor to the project team. Projects will be managed in accordance with the project management principles outlined in DOE Orders. This approach is an important part of our human capital management initiative. Successful execution of these projects will eliminate many of the barriers that have thwarted previous EM attempts to accelera-te cleanup and reduce life-cycle costs. Working With Regulators to Meet Our Environmental Obligations The cleanup at DOE's sites is subject to multiple federal and state environmental laws, implemented and enforced by multiple agencies. Like other Federal agencies, the Department must comply with requirements in these laws in the same manner, and is generally subject to the same sanctions, as a private party. In accordance with environmental laws, the Department has entered into legal agreements and or-ders with State and or...
